

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

ENTERED

April 11, 2025

Nathan Ochsner, Clerk

Cynthia Wood

versus

Frontier Airlines, Inc.

§
§
§
§
§

Civil Action 4:25–cv–01476

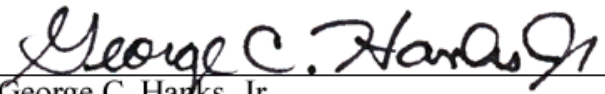

ORDER STRIKING PLEADING

Pending before the Court is Motion to Dismiss – #6 filed by Frontier Airlines, Inc..
The instrument is deficient for the following reason(s):

- ☐ The motion does not comply with the Courts Procedures section 6(E), regarding discovery and scheduling disputes.
- ☒ The motion does not comply with the Courts Procedures section 6(B), regarding pre-motion conferences required for particular motions.
- ☐ The motion does not comply with the Courts Procedures section 6(C)(2), which requires a certificate of conference for all motions.
- ☐ The motion does not comply with the Courts Procedures section 6(C)(3), which requires a separate proposed order for all motions except those filed under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56.

The Clerk is hereby ORDERED to strike the above instrument(s) from the record and notify counsel of such action.

Signed on April 11, 2025, at Houston, Texas.

George C. Hanks, Jr.
United States District Judge